IN DEPORTATION PROCEEDINGS

APPEAL

ON BEHALF OF RESPONDENTS: Susan E. Hill Esquire

APPLICATION: Reopening

ORDER:

PER CURIAM. This case was previously before us on March 6, 2002, when we dismissed the respondents' appeal from the Immigration Judge's decision denying their motion to reopen to rescind the in absentia deportation hearing. On September 24, 2002, we denied the respondents' motion to reconsider. The matter is now before us pursuant to the (b) (6) decision of the United States Court of Appeals for the (b) (6). The court found that the Board and the Immigration Judge erred in considering the respondents' 7-month delay in filing their motion to reopen to rescind after they learned of the in absentia order. It held that as there is no time limit for motions to reopen in absentia orders based on lack of notice of the hearing, "the Immigration Judge could not create one as a matter of discretion." The court remanded for the Board to consider whether the notice of the hearing was in fact proper.

Following the court's decision, we solicited further briefs from the parties. The respondent filed a further brief, but the Department of Homeland Security did not. Upon further consideration, we find that the proceedings should be reopened. In Matter of G-Y-R, 23 I&N Dec. 181 (BIA 2001), we held that, "the notice requirement leading to an in absentia order cannot be satisfied by mailing the Notice to Appear to the last known address of the alien when the alien does not receive the mailing." Id. at 189. Thus, an in absentia hearing is not appropriate where the alien does not receive, and cannot be charged with receiving, notice of removal proceedings,

The record in this case reflects that the notice of hearing was returned to the government as undeliverable. The government claims that the notice was sent to the last known address of the respondents. The respondents have claimed that the letters were sent to the immigration consultant (not attorney) they had hired, and that they did not know the consultant had provided that address. See Fajardo v. INS, 300 F.3d 1018 (9th Cir. 2002). They have consistently alleged that they did not receive the Order to Show Cause or Notice to Appear. It also appears that the respondents were not informed of the requirement that they inform the government of any change of address. See generally Urbina-Osejo v. INS, 124 F.3d 1314 (9th Cir. 1997), and Lahmidi v. INS, 149 F.3d 1011 (9th Cir. 1998). Finally, there is no indication that the respondents received oral warnings of the consequences of their failure to appear for their deportation hearing, and the court in this case has held that the respondents' delay in filing their motion should not be considered. See Matter of M-S, 22 I&N Dec. 349 (BIA 1998).

In view of all these circumstances, we find that reopening is appropriate. Accordingly, the decisions of the Board dated March 6, 2002, and September 24, 2002, are vacated, the proceedings are reopened, and the record is remanded to the Immigration Judge for a further hearing.
